INCIDENT NARRATIVE	(The facts for probable cause to arrest AND to substantiate the charges include, but are not limited to, the following)
	Event # [REDACTED] .. event# [REDACTED] R/sgt was conducting an investigation into an active narcotic selling location near the intersection of Lexington and Independence. R/sgt was in the process of a field interview ( contact card number [REDACTED] ) which involved a subject identified as [REDACTED] IR # [REDACTED] This field interview process was taking place at [REDACTED] and at this time R/sgt requested the assistance of Beat 1133 ( Officer E. Haney # 3591 and L. Burgos # 10915 ). Upon completion of the field interview with [REDACTED] he was released from the rear seat area of R/sgt's police vehicle number 8731. At this point R/sgt and Beat 1133 became immediately involved in another field interview involving a subject identified as [REDACTED] While still on scene and a few moments later assist Officer Haney had an opportunity to check R/sgt rear seat area and discovered item/s in the rear seat area. Officer Haney indicated that the items were a quantity of suspect crack cocaine in small plastic bags and a folded up bundle of USC. Due to this information, R/sgt and Beat 1133 had a desire to recontact and interview [REDACTED] R/sgt learned that [REDACTED] had relocated into the 3rd floor apt at [REDACTED] At this point [REDACTED] mother ( [REDACTED] ) escorted R/sgt and Beat 1133 to her apartment and requested [REDACTED] to come to the door. At this point R/sgt and Beat 1133 detained [REDACTED] and advised him of his rights. R/sgt continued with the investigation in front of the residence. Due to developing circumstance the investigation was relocated into the 011 District station. At this point R/sgt asked Officer Haney to describe in detail the location in which the discovered items were recovered from. Officer Haney pointed to a crevise area in under the plastic molded rear seat. This crevise area is between the plastic moulded seat and the floor board and is not immediately visible. To check this tight crevise area a finger or object would have to be jammed into the crevise and run along the inside. After discovering this crevise area and learning about the discovered items, R/sgt along with Officer Haney conducted a more extensive search of the crevise area. During this more extensive exam R/sgt and Officer Haney discovered a plastic bag wedged deep inside that contained suspect cannabis. After learning in detail and observing the location of the recovered items R/sgt determined that a potential exists that the recovered items could have been in the police vehicle for any length of time or placed in the location by [REDACTED] Again this area is not immediately visible and not observed during a routine visual check of the rear compartment area. This investigation is unable to positively determine the possessor of the recovered items. Due to this, [REDACTED] was released without charging at this point. Items recovered : 4 plastic bags containing suspect crack cocaine, approx weight 4 grams ( inventory # [REDACTED] ) Bundle of of USC totaling $ 113.00 ( inventory # [REDACTED] ). 1 plastic bag containing suspect cannabis, approx weight 4 grams ( inventory number # [REDACTED] ).
